

Qualified signing made simple and secure with Vidua & Adobe Sign

The collaboration between Vidua and Adobe Sign offers businesses a new opportunity to sign documents with a qualified electronic signature (QES) even faster and more easily and still just as secure and reliable.

Personal	Business	Corporate
€0 max. 3 QES per user	€20 max. 20 QES per user per year	€40 unlimited QES per user per year

More than 1,000 users?
Contact our sales department.

Do business online with peace of mind

Both the initial setup and small-scale use of Vidua are free of charge, as we believe in a reliable digital society that everyone can participate in.

Would you like to use Vidua within your organization? Fill out the contact form and start signing with a qualified electronic signature!

Integrating Vidua into your Adobe Sign account in 5 steps

Register with Vidua, and you'll need the following:

- A supported passport or ID card
- Stable internet, a working microphone, and a camera on your phone
- Android 8 | iOS 14 or higher

Enter your Adobe Sign Account ID on the form

Receive the agreement via email. You will be billed based on usage

Log in to your Adobe Sign account as an admin and activate Vidua (Cleverbase)

Sign your documents with a qualified signature using Vidua

Which nationalities does Vidua support?

Overview of the European procurement portals

Vidua supports passports and identity cards with an NFC chip from the following nationalities. An NFC chip is present if the symbol  is on the front of the document. Specific exceptions apply to certain nationalities. Look here for more information on these exceptions.

The Netherlands

Germany

Belgium

Denmark

Ireland

Poland

Türkiye